CREW Midlands South Carolina

We are your partners in commercial real estate dedicated to promoting a dynamic local, regional and national network that advances the success and professional development of our members. CREW chapters are the strongest local real estate organizations in every major market in the world. With an average of 14 years of commercial real estate experience, more than 75% of our members give referrals to other members because of a deep commitment to advance women (and even a few savvy men!) in commercial real estate.
